

All that we share...

Do a version of this with your team to grow connection and trust. Usually there is more that brings us together than we think.

Stand in a circle and read the following. Ask people to step into the circle for every one that applies to them. You can talk about them, have a laugh and get to know each other a lot better.

Add to or adapt the questions to suit your team.

- We who have broken a bone?
- We who were born in New Zealand?
- We who are from the Waikato?
- We who couldn't live without spellcheck?
- We who have a pet?
- We who grew up in the country?
- We who grew up in a town?
- We who like to dance?
- We who like to sing?
- We who like to sing in the shower?
- We who got a detention at school?
- We who have ridden a horse?
- We who have ridden a motor bike?
- We who have had a speeding fine?
- We who likes to swim?
- We who was the class clown?
- We who've been breathalysed?
- We who've found the meaning of life?
- We who are parents?
- We who are step-parents?
- We who are madly in love?
- We who've had our heart broken?
- We who've broken a heart?
- We who like to hold hands?
- We who feel lonely sometimes?
- We who have saved a life?
- We who acknowledge the courage of others?
- We who watch Coronation street?
- We who watch Game Shows?
- We who play sport?
- We who like to run?
- We who only run if we're being chased?
- We who work out at a gym?
- We who do yoga?
- We who can paint?
- We who have had their writing published?
- We who have line danced?
- We who are vegetarian?
- We who can touch type?
- We who like to read?
- We who like to watch t.v.?
- We who would love to time travel?
- We who have time travelled?
- We who can play an instrument?
- We who can speak another language?
- We who are morning people?
- We who are night owls?
- We who have faked a signature?
- We who like to cook?
- We who know the moves to the macarana?

This exercise is adapted from a heartwarming ad on Danish TV2 (available on YouTube)